Bobbitt Throws A Bouquet Or Two.

CRAB ORCHARD, Aug. 16th.—An elegant wedding in high life occurred in Stanford, at the home of the Methodist minister, Ross. The ceremony was most beautifully pronounced that made one the rich Southern widow (Mrs. Anne Austin) of Mobile, and the brilliant young law student, P. F. Kennedy, the gifted and youngest son of G. C. and Mrs. Jennie Kennedy. At first the friends of the groom thought that he was to be congratulated because of the bride's great wealth, but upon a more intimate acquaintance they found that the bride alone was a priceless jewel and peerless gem. This union of two souls with but a single thought; two hearts that beat as one, was most stubbornly resisted and opposed by different ones, male and female. The enemy contested ever inch of ground, burnt every blade of grass and the last entrenchment of opposition was their grave, and in game chicken parlance, there is now more than one dead cock in the pit. The battle on our side was most gallantly fought, the victory most gloriously won. A garland of glory now encircles the noble brow of the gallant groom and a diadem of delicate myrtle garlands the bride's lovely brow. The eldest lawyer (Col. Hill) that ever shone in the foremost ranks of the Kentucky bar, was a half century accumulating a $100,000 fortune, but P. F. Kennedy, by four months' study of law, ornamented with a few verses of choice poetry has duplicated his princely fortune in one short hour. What encouragement for the young to read under Bobbitt! Yesterday evening when the great diurnal luminary was almost ready to pillow his weary head upon the broad bosom of the West, thy elegant rubber-tired buggy left the stately Kennedy mansion with the prospective bride and groom. They left as two, but returned as one, and the regal banquet was enjoyed in the Kennedy halls and is still going on with noisy revelry. I have given the student a well-earned vacation until Monday and then he will resume the serious reading of law. The writer was called upon, who quoted "Lord Ullin's Daughter," etc. He also said this case had been agitated, discussed and procrastinated till all had put on mother Hubbard and he hoped the bride, if not wearing one now, would appear at the breakfast table with a mother Hubbard gracefully wrapping her lovely form.

The bride wore so many different silks from China and lovely Cashmere shawls from Persia that I shall not attempt to describe her apparel; and as for Faulkner, all know that he is a perfect Apollo of manly beauty and half a hundred maidens were sighing for his love.

May their future days be successful, glorious and prosperous is the sincere desire and earnest prayer of a true friend.

FOUNTAIN FOX HOUTT.

Pessimists, who declare that the world is growing worse and that there are no honest men, are cited to a case in Barren County. In 1877 W. W. Palmore loaned Martin Skaggs, of Edmonson county, $180. Skaggs was quite a young man and at the beginning of the Civil War enlisted. Palmore heard that Skaggs was killed and gave up his $180 as lost. The incident had passed out of his mind till a day or two ago Skaggs appeared at the home of Palmore and said he was ready to pay that note. Palmore didn't know him nor did he recall the loan. Skaggs insisted on paying it with 10 per cent. interest, but Palmore declined to accept more than 6 and that rate of interest was finally agreed on. The note with interest for 28 years amounted to $698 and it was paid. Skaggs' paternity is not a very euphonious one, but it deserves to be written in letters of gold and pictures of silver.—Kentucky State Journal.

They Appeal to Our Sympathies.

The billions and dyspeptic are constant sufferers and appeal to our sympathies. There is not one of them, however, who may not be brought back to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. These tablets invigorate the stomach and liver and strengthen the bowels. They also regulate the bowels. For sale by all druggists.

Baron Kaneko, Japan's confidential representative in the United States, made his fourth visit to Oyster Bay for a conference with President Roosevelt. While nothing was given out, it is believed that his visit had relation to the peace negotiations in progress at Portsmouth.

News of the death of Will W. White in Dallas, Tex., was a great shock to the parents and host of friends of the young man here in his old home. He had been suffering from heart trouble for some time, but his condition was not deemed serious. The end came Friday, and, as stated above, was a terrible shock to the family. Funeral services were conducted in Dallas Sunday.—Central Record. Mr. White was a son of Mr. Frank J. White, who worked in this office some 15 years ago.

Last Saturday's Courier-Journal printed a fine double-column cut of our compositors, Miss Katharine Warren, showing very well she looks the typical Blue-Grass belle. All that have seen samples of her ability and speed in a printing office can attest to her fullest efficiency as a typesetter. Miss Warren has been with the Mountaineer several weeks and is popular with those in Somerset who have been fortunate enough to get acquainted with her. She comes to Somerset from Stanford and is of one of the old and well known families of Lincoln county, being a grand-daughter of Col. Silas Anderson, one of that county's wealthiest citizens. It is a secret not generally known that we are to lose her soon to a prominent young attorney here, but such is believed to be a fact.—Somerset Mountaineer.

Hints To Houseworkers.

Nothing is more important to the hardworking housekeeper, than to keep her liver properly working otherwise, that pale sallow look, and tired feeling, will make her look as shabby as a dog. It is a pure liver tonic—a cure for Constipation, Biliousness, and indigestion. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, P. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

A Warning to Mothers.

Too much care can not be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by all druggists.

DROPPED DEAD.—Mrs. Chelf, the aged wife of Mr. Percy Chelf, one of the best men in Casey county, dropped dead at the Liberty fair Thursday afternoon of heart trouble. Her sudden death cast a gloom over the fair crowd and many of the visitors did not return Friday. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Chelf in the loss of his helpmeet of nearly a half century.

THE Liberty fair was a success financially and otherwise. Good crowds attended daily, while that of Thursday was a record-breaker. The rings were most all well filled and the trots, paces and running races were interesting and in some cases exciting. As usual Lincoln county horsemen carried off a good share of premiums. Those most successful were Messrs. D. S. C. C. E. P. and John Steele Carpenter, W. S. Drye, Dodd & Bohon, R. S. Scudder, S. M. Owens and G. M. Givens. Miss Julia Staggs drove with him. N. H. Bishop and Miss Jennie Wilcher, both of Lincoln, got the red tie in the above ring. The high driver was a free attraction that drew many to the fair. FRIDAY's Courier-Journal contained a picture of Maj. E. W. Lillard and his staff taken at Paducah. Mr. Rowan Sauley, of this office, who is adjutant, is in the picture but the cut is so badly printed that even his better half barely recognized him in the group.

THE Frankfort Journal gives a true diagnosis as follows: "You can't insult some fellows more than by asking them for the money they owe you. But the fellow who gets mad when asked for on honest debt is a thief at heart and would be one in reality if not for the fear of being caught."

PENDLETON.—Mr. Arch P. Pendleton, familiarly known to his legion of friends as "Uncle H.," died at 2 o'clock Sunday morning after a protracted illness of a complication of troubles, aged 72. The burial occurred at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at Goshen church. At the request of Mr. Pendleton funeral services were conducted by Mr. J. C. McClary. Few, if any kinder-hearted men, ever lived in this section than the deceased, and many there are who are grieved that his familiar face will be seen no more. He was a member of the Christian church, but his poor health prevented his regular attendance in latter years. Mr. Pendleton was twice married, his first wife being a Miss Hiatt, who died a number of years ago. One child, Mr. George F. Pendleton, was the fruit of this union. Some five years ago he married the widow of Mr. James Pepples, who survives him, and she and the son have much sympathy in their loss. He was a Confederate soldier and a gallant one. Peace to his ashes!

Thomas Cloyd, of Bohon, and Miss Myrtle Yeast, of Cornishville, and John Sallee and Miss Maggie Anderson, of the west-end of the county, were married by Rev. Dr. W. F. Vaughan at the Methodist parsonage at Harrodsburg.

An announcement of much interest to the people here is the engagement of Miss Flora Lillard VanArsdall of this place, and Mr. James Burnside Anderson, of Lancaster, the wedding to take place in the early fall.—Harrodsburg Herald.

Handsome announcements have been received by friends here of the marriage in Covington of Miss Edna Letcher Baughman, of Hustonville, to Mr. Smith Adams Penny, of St. Joseph, Mo. Rev. J. W. Hagin, a warm friend of the bride, performed the ceremony at his home on Sanford Avenue and the wedding, although a very quiet one, was both elegant and pretty. The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. K. Baughman and is a charming young woman. She is a queenly beauty and is as popular as she is handsome. Mr. Penny is a well-known business man of St. Joe and is very distantly related to his bride. They have been sweethearts for a number of years, but each having kept the secret well, few knew of their intentions. After a stay of several weeks in the East, they will be at home to their friends at 610 Bon Ton Street, St. Joseph, Mo., where the good wishes of their hosts of friends will always be with them.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. John Klingman, of Sellersburg, Ind., preached at Christ's church last night.

The second annual convention of Christian churches of Bath county is in session.

A Catholic Bishop and two missionaries, brother and sister, were murdered by natives in German, East Africa.

An interesting meeting is in session at Providence church, in Rockcastle county. There have been 20-odd additions.

Large crowds are attending the meeting at the Christian church. The singing led by Prof. Leonard Daugherty is the best heard in Stanford for a long time.

Plans have been prepared for the new Methodist Church, North, at Barbourville and most of the money for the construction has been subscribed. Work will commence at once.

There were between 800 and 1,000 people present at the "Children's Day" exercises held at the school house, near Orlando. Ninety children were in the march, and of the good things to eat there was enough carried back home to feed as many more, as had eaten to their full satisfaction.—Mt. Vernon Signal.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe, and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Penny's Drug Store.

Fell Dead.
A man fell dead in Chicago the other day from heart trouble, and thousands die every day in the same way. But the cause of nine out of 10 of such cases of heart trouble is indigestion. The cure is Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. The explanation is that the swollen, inflamed, and en-gorged stomach, presses right up against the heart and prevents it from working;
your heart flutters, palpitates, pains
and you are short of breath; some lose it forever. Just try for these symptoms, a few doses of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and see how quickly I will cure you. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1.00. Money back if it fails.

The Universal Belief.
They say that cleanliness is next
to godliness; forsooth
Were it reversed the maxim would
Be so much nearer truth:
For who is there of all of us,
The temperance or the wet,
The Protestant or Catholic,
The orthodox or not,
Who wouldn't choose to dwell with
one,
Not yet escaped the wrath,
In preference to a golly one
Who never took a bath?
William J. Lampton.

President Roosevelt is exerting every possible effort to prevent a rupture of the peace conference at Portsmouth
and to induce the envoys to compromise their differences. He has elicited the cordial support of Great Britain, France and Germany, and tremendous pressure is being brought to bear on the Governments at St. Petersburg and Tokio not to allow the conference to fail of the object. Baron de Rosen, at the President's request, visited Oyster Bay Saturday and the President presented to him a proposition which it is hoped may smooth over the differences that have arisen between the conferees. On the result of its consideration, it is believed the fate of the peace conference depends.

Kansas City was unanimously selected by the Trans-Mississippi Congress
as the convention city for 1906.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold.
A. J. Nussbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case,
and I took several medicines which seemed to only aggravate my case.
Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Penny's Drug Store.

Spain boasts probably the longest law suit in the world's history. It began in 1547 and is still sub judice. The case, which concerns a pension, is between the Marquis de Viana and the Count Torres de Caprera, and the accumulated sum in dispute would have reached fabulous millions had not four centuries of attorneys, barristers and court officials taken considerable measures of appropriation to prevent the sum becoming unviewly.

Another Good man Gone
Wrong.
He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease.
There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptoms will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you are soon sound and well. A. B. Bass, of Murfreesboro, Ind., had to get up 10 or 12 times in the night, and had a severe backache and pains in the kidneys,
and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. Penny's Drug Store.
